

Ooh La La Events LLC

Welcome! Come and visit over tea and our Complimentary Initial Consultation, to get acquainted and explore your dream wedding (without obligation). Understanding your personality, budget and ideas will help us know how our services would benefit your joyous day. You will receive a list of our current references, read our referral letters and see weddings that we have professionally participated in. You will have information to compare us with other wedding coordinators so you will know if we are the right team for you.

Our fees are available by packages, some may be customized. You may be involved as much or as little as you would like. No wedding is too big or too small for us. Final decisions are always left to you.

We, at Ooh La La Events LLC, are proud of the thoroughness, dedication, and experience in our performance. Our services and attentions are focused on making your extra special day free of worry or complications, and truly elegantly coordinated so you may relax and enjoy your day.
